Uptrend 2. Upper Shadow at least twice as big as Real Body 3. Real Body Bullish or Bearish; better if Bearish
3 Black Crows Each of the three candlesticks in the Three Black Crows pattern should be relatively long bearish candlesticks with each candlestick closing at or near the low price for the period. Each successive candlestick should mark a steady decline in price and should not have long lower shadows or wicks. Preferably, each of the three candlesticks should open within the real body of the preceding candlestick in the pattern.	Same matching Highs How to identify Tweezers Top Pattern: 1) The price is in a long uptrend. 2) In the uptrend a bearish candlestick forms. 3) The high of the bullish candlestick matches the high of the previous bullish candlestick. Tweezer Top a bearish reversal pattern seen at the top of uptrends
Flag Continuation Pattern usually occurs after a significant up or down market move. After a strong move, prices usually need to rest. This resting period usually occurs in the shape of a rectangle, thus the word "Flag". The Flag is considered a continuation pattern because after resting, prices will usually continue in the direction they did before. No Price Breakout Upwards Buy Breakout Sell Breakout Buy when price closes above the Flag's Resistance Line Sell when price closes below the Flag's Support Line	Gaps A Gap Up occurs when the open of Day 2 is greater than the close of Day 1. Contrastingly, a Gap Down occurs when the open of Day 2 is less than the close of Day 1. Resistance: Once price gaps downward, the gap can act as long-term or even permanent resistance. Support: When prices gap upwards, the gap can act as support to prices in the future, either long-term or permanently.	Ascending/Descending Triangles a continuation pattern using the concepts of support and resistance and price breakouts. Buy when price closes above the Triangle's Resistance Line Higher Lows Price is Building for a move past Resistance Resistance Buy Breakout Sell Breakout Support Lower Highs Price is Building for a move past Support Support Sell Breakout Sell when price closes below the Triangle's Support Line
